VI. Open issues

- a) New office progress – Don Gooden, aka Chino, has air conditioner boxes ready. Will put in when weather breaks. Additional siding for uncovered areas of pavilion waiting on weather as well.
- b) Long Range target replacement – Still looking into it. Dick will work with long range shooters for best design.
- c) Request for range use/Billings, MT security corp. – Have not contacted us. Will remove from agenda.
- d) Excess CR funds investment – Rates aren't going up. Need to take what we can get. Looking into a CD.
- e) Escrow investment – Will go to a 2 year CD.

VII. New business

- a) Cattle Brand Inspectors convention – Request for demonstration/shoot – 30-50 participants. July 17 or 18. Board has approved discussions to do this.
- b) Club combination changes – New combinations are coming.
- c) Work day – Sunday, February 28 – Cancelled.
- d) Smoking in pavilion enclosed area – Board approved a policy of no smoking in pavilion enclosed areas and long range house. No Smoking signs will be posted in both places.
- e) Defensive pistol shoots – Have information from Northern Colorado Rod and Gun Club on how to run a match and several letters from interested people who will support and participate. Motion to have a defensive pistol match, seconded, discussion, vote, approved. Jerry will continue to work for best day/date in April or May to start.
- f) Override of HOW '10 Match Director – Executive Board had previously voted to override the HOW '10 Match Director on the issue of his not inviting Work n Ranch, a vendor, to HOW. Motion to overturn the Executive Board's decision, seconded, discussion, vote, failed.
- g) March monthly shoot registration – Doris Sorrell
- h) March monthly shoot setup – 5 Stages will be provided. Need people to help with set up.
- i) Fall sight-in days - Will coordinate sight-in days with the Cheyenne Rifle and Pistol Club to give best coverage.
- j) By-laws - Motion to present by-laws as a package not by article, seconded, discussion, motion withdrawn.
