VI. Open issues

- a) Props and targets inventory – Buffalo is up. Inventory is getting close to being done. Hawkeye has been repairing some targets.
- b) Defensive Pistol shoot results – 35 shooters.
- c) Office trailer removal/money saved – Trailer gone. Saved lots of money because we did not have to move and dispose of it.
- d) HOW '10 workers thank you – August fun shoot. Free shoot and lunch for workers.

VII. New business

- a) Crow Creek Fur Co. 2 day shoot August 14-15 (Bay use conflict and other issues) – moved to the 21st and 22nd.
- b) Vendor trailer left on range after HOW – trailer is gone.
- c) Money box for Defensive Pistol shoot – motion to leave $100 in cash box on the range that Don will not be responsible for if stolen, to be used for all sanctioned shoots, seconded, discussion, vote, passed. Secretary will send out a letter to all executive board members to let them know. Secretary will also send a form to Don to sign relieving him of responsibility if it is stolen.
- d) Long range target replacement/tie down – Holepuncher will make a tie down to lock it down so that no one else can set it up
- e) Proposed policy for range use by outside organizations - tabled
- f) Long range road/culvert – Dave will talk with Mark to decide what needs and can be done.
- g) Monthly work day – Aug 29 – 10am. Lunch will be provided.
- h) August monthly shoot registration – Stephanie
- i) August monthly shoot stage marshals/setup – Jerry
- j) August fun shoot support/setup and registration – HOW worker appreciation shoot. Lunch will be provided and free shoot for the workers. Cap will set up stages.
- k) Bruce Brinkman aka Yellowhair passed. Will send $50 from the Regulators and the $20 that his family sent to the SASS Scholarship.
- l) Motion to buy paper targets and target stands and 2x4 stands, seconded, discussion, vote, passed.
- m) Jerry read range master responsibilities from the by-laws. It is the range masters responsibility to schedule range use and ensure that trained personnel are present and safety is our number one concern.
- n) Nominations for HOW '11 Match Director – Red River Wrangler aka Dave Bishop is nominated. More nominations and vote will take place at the August monthly meeting.
- o) Motion to move meetings to clubhouse for the months that weather permits, seconded, discussion, vote, passed.
